ABOUT NALSA

Towards fulfilling the Preambular promise of securing to all the citizens, Justice - Social, Economic and Political, in 1987, The Legal Services Authorities Act was enacted by the Parliament, which came into force on 9th November, 1995. The National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) has been constituted under the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 to provide Free Legal Services to the weaker sections of the society.

Public awareness, equal opportunity and deliverable justice are the cornerstones on which the edifice of NALSA is based. The principal objective of NALSA is to provide free and competent legal services to the weaker sections of the society and to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities, and to organize Lok Adalats for amicable settlement of disputes. In addition to this, functions of NALSA include spreading legal literacy and awareness, undertaking social justice litigations etc.

NALSA works in close coordination with the various State Legal Services Authorities, District Legal Services Authorities.

ABOUT PATHNATYA (STREET PLAY)

Street Theatre in India referred to as the 'Third Theatre' as a form of social and cultural communication. Many Complex social issues be it gender related, child labor, imparting knowledge about HIV and AIDS, the need to educate a girl politics, are all enacted through the genre of 'street plays'.

There is a 'stage discussion' through varying perspectives of a number of characters, bringing an immediacy and urgency to the theme under consideration. It is a situation, where the audience may not have come prepared to watch a play, may not have time on hand, hence the impact of a 'street play' is direct, close, intimate and effective. The impact is 'immediate'.
