Syllabus for Master of Arts (History) in Affiliated Colleges

Faculty of Humanities

History

2023

in accordance with National Education Policy 2020

PROGRAMME INTRODUCTION

History is a discipline based on a critical understanding of the past through the rigorous use of evidence, conventional and non-conventional, from the mainstream and the margins.

The main objective of the Master of Arts (History) course is to facilitate a critical understanding of history. It aims to help the students acquire a strong theoretical base to understand various issues and trends in the past societies at the global as well as local level. The current syllabus is structured to inculcate among the students a broad inter-disciplinary perspective so that they ask novel questions and explore newer ways to find the answers.

Programme Outcomes (POs):
PO-1	Cultural Intelligence: The students develop a deep understanding of the multiple pasts which makes them uniquely equipped in the emerging field of cultural intelligence .
PO-2	Knowledge Construction: The students develop a logical understanding of the past which enables them to make sense of the current societal situations in their historical context. The students gather intimate knowledge of the genesis and evolution of the social, economic, cultural and political formations from the human past.
PO-3	Historical Research: Students learn historical research methods to generate knowledge about the various events and phenomena from the past.
PO-4	Conservation and Preservation: The course equips the student to understand the necessity of conservation and preservation of art, culture and heritage at the regional and global level.
PO-5	Application of Research methods: Students learn to select and apply appropriate methods, techniques, sources and modern ICT for generation and dissemination of historical knowledge.
PO-6	Historical understanding of society: Students learn to apply reasoning informed by the contextual knowledge of the human past to assess the current state of society, economy, environment, culture and other related areas.
PO-7	Career Prospects: The programme will enable the students to have a detailed knowledge of the past, which is useful for various domains of public service.
PO-8	Individual and team work: The programme is designed to let the students build knowledge effectively as an individual and a team member.
PO-9	Communication: The programme is designed to make the students excel in communicating the outcomes of their historical research in various media.
PO-10	Life-long learning: The learners acquire the capability of critically evaluating the past for a better understanding of the human past.

This syllabus has been designed in accordance with the National Education Policy 2020 and as per the guidelines given by the Maharashtra State Council for Higher Education and Savitribai Phule Pune University. It is hoped that it aligns with the academic needs of the time and enhances the employability of the students without compromising the intrinsic value of studying the past.
